Soccer Referee Course (9) Hour

This Course is for individuals that want to officiate youth soccer games for the City of Lodi

The dates and times of the Soccer Referee Course are as follows:

Tuesday, August 8th	6:30 pm to 9:30 pm
Thursday, August 10th	6:30 pm to 9:30 pm
Monday, August 14th	6:30 pm to 9:30 pm

Classes will be held at the northwest end of the Lodi Parks and Recreation Annex Building located just south of the main Lodi Parks and Recreation building, 112 N. Stockton Street.

The entrance to the Soccer Course classroom is from the alley located between the Parks and Recreation Administration building and the Annex building.

The cost to take the Course is $15.00; and all people that wish to take the Course should sign up in advance at Lodi Parks and Recreation Main Office at 125 N. Stockton Street.

All checks should be made out to: Lodi Soccer Referees Association

Individuals must be at least 16 years of age to participate

This Course will be limited to only those who will be available to officiate games during the regular soccer season that runs from about September 1st to November 1st each year.

Most games are on Saturdays from about 8:30am to about 3:30pm. Some games are also Scheduled three (3) or four (4) evenings during the week from about 5:00pm to about 8:30pm.

All sports officials must become an employee of the City of Lodi and must clear a criminal background check with the California Department of Justice. All students under the age of eighteen (18) must also obtain a “Work Permit” from the school administrative office that they are attending. Prospective sports officials may start the process BEFORE taking the Nine (9) Hour Soccer Referee Course, Which allows them to begin officiating when the season begins in September. The aforementioned is, however, predicated on having filled out all employment related documents in a timely manner and having met all criteria required for employment by the City of Lodi
